

- g) the development of international contract activity in both funded development projects and entrepreneurial projects.

Guidelines for the following are available through the Office of Contract Training and International Education:

1. international student fees;
2. fee refunds;
3. admissions/registration;
4. homestay;
5. student recruitment;

6. student exchange